Nel 1970, al culmine di una fase di conquiste contrattuali importanti, fu approvato lo statuto dei diritti dei lavoratori. Una legge che era una svolta. Alcuni, forse troppi, anche a sinistra lo capirono in ritardo. In anni più recenti, con il dispiegarsi della globalizzazione, è iniziato un attacco allo statuto che ha portato allo smantellamento di sue parti fondamentali come la regola che prevedeva il reintegro senza giusta causa. contro i licenziamenti immotivati. Questo attacco, portato in nome dell'ideologia dominante che cantava le lodi della soppressione di tutte le regole sul lavoro, ha purtroppo fatto proseliti anche a sinistra. E dobbiamo al Governo Renzi un attacco tra i più gravi allo statuto dei lavoratori. È ovvio che a destra hanno approfittato di questo varco e hanno fatto di tutto per andare oltre.

Browser use is also being funneled into using "Snooping" browsers such as "Google Chrome" and "Microsoft Edge". Right now users are warned they have an unsecure browser if they are not using either Chrome or Edge. It is a scare tactic to make people switch. Why do they want folks to switch? The best answer I can come up with is that these two browsers are scripted to call home and report where and what the user is doing on their browser. Anyone using these browsers can attest that their spam mail and pop up ads has increased after switching to either one of these browsers. What about Firefox? The jury is still out about Firefox. Apparently it is not being flagged at the moment as an unsafe browser by MS nor Google. So who knows if they are onboard with the big snoop conspiracy? There are still a lot of websites that don't flag SeaMonkey either, however, some sites do warn about using SeaMonkey since it has popup protection and erases all traces of where one has been once the browser is closed.

La considerazione sociale del lavoro è crollata con il peggioramento del potere contrattuale e delle condizioni di lavoro della maggioranza dei lavoratori. Non solo in Italia, dove pure è esistito un movimento sindacale forte e combattivo, ma nel mondo perché la pressione della globalizzazione neoliberista ha spinto verso il basso il lavoro. Man simply is…Man is nothing else but that which he makes of himself.'9 There is no divine intention behind human existence, no creative intelligence, and thus no purpose, no particular task in mind that shapes our being: our freedom consists in a complete freedom from constraints of this kind. Man is nothing else but that which he makes of himself.

Invecchiare con dignità: un diritto umano, ma anche un'opportunità di progresso economico Il CESE ritiene che l'invecchiamento dignitoso dovrebbe diventare un diritto fondamentale. Gli europei vivono più a lungo e questa è una buona notizia. Ma con l'invecchiamento emergono nuove sfide sociali, economiche e legate alla salute che interessano gli anziani, le loro famiglie e la società in generale. Per troppo tempo questo aspetto è stato trascurato e le esigenze crescenti delle persone anziane non sono state anticipate, afferma il CESE. In un parere adottato il 15 maggio il CESE sottolinea l'enorme potenziale rappresentato dagli anziani per la creazione di nuovi posti di lavoro e per il progresso tecnologico.
