The teacher should have skilfully planned some activities which then enable the children to: • fix any misconceptions or errors they have previously made; • edit and improve their own work after benefiting from the direct verbal feedback; • practise or build on their successes from the previous lesson. Activities responding to feedback will depend on the area of learning, the age and ability of the children. In many cases, they will include editing and improving children's own work, using the feedback as a focus. Meanwhile, the teacher (and teaching assistant) will circulate and provide specific verbal feedback to some individual children, to guide their next steps. In EYFS and KS1, small-group and individual feedback will be given and acted upon in improvement groups, which might run at any point during the day, and activities to address misconceptions and next steps in learning will often be built into continuous provision. In reviewing children's work, and in the process of editing and improving, not every error should always be identified or fixed. For example some spelling errors may remain on a finished piece of writing – this is because teachers use professional judgement to target and prioritise specific aspects of teaching and learning. Each piece of work – and therefore each cycle of feedback – is part of a much bigger, long-term developmental process. Following up on Feedback – monitoring the impact We expect the impact of feedback to be evident in the children's work. Persistent errors should be swiftly identified and dealt with; where this proves impossible through Quality First Teaching, additional provision must be planned and delivered. It is the class teacher's responsibility to reflect on the impact of their own feedback, and regularly check from their feedback grids that issues identified earlier in the term have now been addressed. Subject leaders and senior leaders will monitor this closely, and it will be an important focus of work scrutiny. Governors will oversee this policy and its implementation. 2.5.3. Présentation du phénomène OVNI et de la situation belge à l'Université du 3e âge de Liège Alain Kinet, un ancien membre du COBEPS a proposé au professeur Marcel Rainkin l'intervention du COBEPS dans le cadre du cours de philosophie des religions. Ce sont le professeur Eddy Louchez (Historien de l'UCL et membre du COBEPS) et messieurs Patrick Ferryn et JeanMarc Wattecamps qui ont brossé le portrait du phénomène, de la vague belge dans ce contexte et les dernières observations en Belgique. Cette présentation de plus de deux heures a permis de recueillir deux témoignages de l'époque de de la vague belge.

3. Various Matrices: (a) Unitary Umatrix between zero energy states is the fun damental one. Its rows corres spond to Mmatrices and are orhotogonal to each other in the inner product defined by the trace of product. Smatrix disappears in the product so that the basis of orthogonal square roots of density matrix is obtained.

As part of our work to expose the impacts of forest offsets for aviation we produced two short case studies: one focused on offsetting through industrial charcoal production in Brazil, which was published on International Civil Aviation Day, and another on the Valdivia biomass plant in Chile that is based on research undertaken in 2020 but will be published in mid-2021.

We currently have $4,300.00 in our computer line for the budget for this year. We will work with Certified Computer Services, we CANNOT go over allotted money that we have budgeted for. We are looking for more memory and to replace 2? We need to research when the computers were last replaced.

By his love and power controlling all I do or say PRAYER CAN CHANGE ME AND CHANGE OTHERS Matthew 6 v 7-8 This is a creative way to encourage children to pray out loud in a group. This game gives them a framework in which to pray and have fun.

 The actual representation of complete dataset and reduction in selecting sample bias are the main advantage of stratified sampling. In a dataset different categories or different classes are represented by different stratum. The training records are reduced to two lakh examples by twice using the concept of stratified sampling.

To construct Lyapunov functions for systems with non□polynomial vector fields, the vector field is rendered polynomial using auxiliary variables u that encompass the non-polynomial terms. Let u = g(x), where g(x) is a vector of non-polynomial functions that appear in the vector field. Then u will have its own dynamics, u˙ = ∂g ∂xx˙ , fu(x, u).

With our member group Biofuelwatch we published a briefing entitled "Can sustainability and greenhouse gas standards protect the climate, forests, and communities from the impacts of wood-based bioenergy?" We also submitted comments and inputs into a number of different EU consultations involving forest policy.

protagonisti/PROGRAM: Građanska inicijativa za Muzil „Volim Pulu" je mreža pojedinaca stvorena s namjerom upoznavanja Muzila, njegova otvaranja i javnog korištenja te raspravljanja o njegovoj budućnosti. Članovi Inicijative 2009. godine prvi put dobivaju dozvolu za posjet Muzilu, ali prostor još nije trajno otvoren za javnost. Pojedine prostore od 2009. koriste Radio klub Arena□Pula, Sportsko-ribolovno društvo Delta i drugi korisnici u niskom intenzitetu. Grad Pula je krajem 2009. i početkom 2010. organizirao za građane tri posjeta poluotoku. || „Muzil, Mužilj, Mussil, mjesto koje je oduvijek služilo vojnoj namjeni, napušten je nakon skoro 200 godina. Čitav poluotok, koji zatvara južnu stranu Pulskog zaljeva, za građane nikad nije postojao. (...) Povijesna privilegija našeg trenutka, koju nije imala priliku doživjeti niti jedna generacija pulskih građana, privilegija je rasprave o budućnosti Muzila. Demilitarizacijom Muzila Puli je pružena mogućnost za potpuno nov razvoj grada. (...) Razdvajanje Pule od Muzila ne smije se nikad više ponoviti. Njegove ograde moraju nestati! Imamo priliku, snagu, volju i odgovornost to ostvariti." (Iz proglasa građanske inicijative za Muzil, preuzeto s: http://muzil.org/web/proglas) - MUZIL – PULA ORIGINAL PURPOSE: Military zone. STATUS: In 2007, Croatian Army left the Muzil peninsula, an extraordinary spatial resource for further development of Pula, with an intact nature and buildings with military purpose. The area of "devastation" is guarded by special unit the "Tigers"; demilitarized zone is in the property of the state. protagonists/PROGRAM: Citizens' Initiative for Muzil "I love Pula" is a network of individuals created with intention of introducing Muzil and its opening to public use and discussion of its future. In 2009, members of Initiative received permission to visit Muzil, but the area was not permanently open to public. Since 2009, some areas have been used by Radio club Arena – Pula, Sports Fishing Association Delta and other users in low intensity. At the end of 2009 and the beginning of 2010 the city of Pula organized three visits to the peninsula for the citizens. / "Muzil, Mužilj, Mussil, a place that always served a military purpose was abandoned after nearly 200 years. The whole peninsula, which encloses the southern side of Pula bay, never existed for the citizens. (…) Historical privilege of this moment, which none of the previous generations of Pula citizens had a chance to experience, is a privilege to debate about the future of Muzil. With Muzil's demilitarization, Pula was given the opportunity for a whole new development of a city. (…) Separating Pula from Muzil must never happen again. Its boundaries must disappear! We have the opportunity, the strength, the will and the responsibility to accomplish it." (From the proclamation of Citizens' Initiative for Muzil, source: http://muzil.

Es hatte ein Mann einen Esel, der schon lange Jahre die Säcke unverdrossen zur Mühle getragen hatte, dessen Kräfte aber nun zu Ende gingen, so dass er zur Arbeit immer untauglicher ward. Da dachte der Herr daran, ihn aus dem Futter zu schaffen, aber der Esel merkte, dass kein guter Wind wehte, lief fort und machte sich auf den Weg nach Bremen: dort, meinte er, könnte er ja Stadtmusikant werden., Als er ein Weilchen fortgegangen war, fand er einen Jagdhund auf dem Wege liegen, der japste wie einer, der sich müde gelaufen hat. "Nun, was japst du so, Packan?" fragte der Esel. "Ach", sagte der Hund, "weil ich alt bin und jeden Tag schwächer werde, auch auf der Jagd nicht mehr fort kann, hat mich mein Herr wollen totschlagen, da hab ich Reißaus genommen; aber womit soll ich nun mein Brot verdienen?" "Weißt du was", sprach der Esel, "ich gehe nach Bremen und werde dort Stadtmusikant, geh mit und lass dich auch bei der Musik annehmen. Ich spiele die Laute, und du schlägst die Pauken". Der Hund war's zufrieden, und sie gingen weiter. Es dauerte nicht lange, so saß da eine Katze an dem Weg und machte ein Gesicht wie drei Tage Regenwetter. "Nun, was ist dir in die Quere gekommen, alter Bartputzer?" sprach der Esel. "Wer kann da lustig sein, wenn´s einem an den Kragen geht", antwortete die Katze, "weil ich nun zu Jahren komme, meine Zähne stumpf werden und ich lieber hinter dem Ofen sitze und spinne als nach Mäusen herumjage, hat mich meine Frau ersäufen wollen; ich habe mich zwar noch fortgemacht, aber nun ist guter Rat teuer: wo soll ich hin?" "Geh mit uns nach Bremen, du verstehst dich doch auf die Nachtmusik, da kannst du ein Stadtmusikant werden." Die Katze hielt das für gut und ging mit. Darauf kamen die drei Landesflüchtigen an einem Hof vorbei, da saß auf dem Tor der Haushahn und schrie aus Leibeskräften. "Du schreist einem durch Mark und Bein", sprach der Esel, "was hast du vor?" "Da hab ich gut Wetter prophezeit", sprach der Hahn, "weil unserer lieben Frauen Tag ist, wo sie dem Christkindlein die Hemden gewaschen hat und sie trocknen will; aber, weil morgen zum Sonntag Gäste kommen, so hat die Hausfrau doch kein Erbarmen und hat der Köchin gesagt, sie wollte mich
